

LOCALS AND PERSONALS.

Miss Bertie Reynolds of 602 Marion street left Saturday morning for a two weeks' vacation to Summerton, S. C., the guest of Misses Mattie and Mamie DeLaine, daughters of Rev. H. C. DeLaine. We hope for her a pleasant trip.

Mr. J. J. Dillard of Bishopville was in the city this week on business.

Mrs. Addie B. McWhirter of Spartanburg spent last week in the city, visiting her friend, Mrs. Alberta Altee Marshall of our office. She reports quite a pleasant stay.

Rev. W. M. Gladden of Birmingham, Ala., visited in the city a few days. Rev. Gladden lived in the city several years ago when he made many lasting friends. Since pastoring in Alabama he has made it a rule to visit the city every year when on his vacation.

Mrs. Martha Jones left the city Wednesday for Knoxville, Tenn., for a two weeks' visit. While there she will be the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Williams.

Mr. Geo. Johnson, of Charleston, Mrs. Adell Pattifote of Denmark, and Mrs. Rosa Murray of Beaufort are in the city on a visit to their parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Johnson, on Hampton avenue.

Mrs. Nancy Johnson of Orangeburg spent a few days in the city recently with her niece, Mrs. Hattie Green. She left on the 16th for Bennettsville, where she is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Frankie Reese.

Don't forget that Reese's Drug store at 1422 Assembly street is prepared and willing to serve you with anything in first class drugs.

City officials are planning to give Columbia a thorough "clean up" of the loading class. Better get you a job, boys, or stay off the streets.

Mr. M. E. Adams has moved his shoe repair shop from 1205 Assembly street to 1012 Washington street, just across from the Economy Shoe Shop, which is owned and operated by Mr. J. C. Eubanks. Both of these young men are deserving of your patronage. Give them your next pair of shoes to repair.

Waverly Millinery Shop will have a choice line of the latest hats for women by September 1st. You are invited to inspect their's before you make your next purchase. If you don't buy it will be no insult to the owners but give them a chance to compare the prices of the same hats from the same wholesalers as carried by Smith's, one of the leading merchants in the city. The difference in price might warrant your going a little out of the way to buy there.

Mrs. W. H. Rutherford of 1337 Gregg street has our thanks for calling by the office last week and settling for The Indicator.

Mr. Wilson J. Miles of Pine street called at the office last week and paid his subscription to The Indicator. Mr. Miles has our thanks for a new subscriber, Mr. Jas. A. Heiper, at 2124 Senate street.

Mrs. W. H. Rutherford left yesterday, Friday, for Clinton, S. C., where she will spend a few weeks with relatives and friends. Her daughter, Miss Mamie, accompanied her.

Mrs. Albertha Simons, financial clerk for the Mutual Relief and Benevolent Association, is spending her vacation in Ridgeway section with Mr. Simon's people.

Dr. J. W. Easley of Greelyville was seen in the city last Monday.

It is said that a certain minister has more business out of the city now than in a naccount of a few bad checks. Some others ought to leave on account of not paying honest bills.

When in need of drugs, a physician, a dentist or attorney look over The Indicator's list of advertisers.

Have you visited The Broadway Dairy Lunch Cafe, at 1108 Washington street, lately? Well, its a fine place for ladies and gents to get meals any hour of the day. The Woods boys certainly know how to get and hold customers.

Misses Jessie and Hattie Belle Gladden of 1404 Bryan street, city, left Saturday for Batesburg, S. C., for a two weeks' stay with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Toland, Rev. Rosser, Wise and others. Margaret Gladden went to Birmingham, Ala., on the 17th, visiting her mother, father and other relatives.

Mrs. L. M. Clark is spending her vacation in Asheville, N. C.

Misses Alma and Ruth Watson are visiting relatives and friends in Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Asman and daughter, Miss Miriam, motored to Swansea last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Outen, 2324 Washington street, spent a few days in Asheville, N. C.

Mrs. Lizzie Nichols of Philadelphia is in the city on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Carrie Goode, 1013 Pine street.

Mrs. D. D. Mozie is spending a few weeks in Cincinnati, Ohio, with relatives and friends. Mrs. Mozie's eldest daughter, Miss Fannie, is also in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Galvy on Wheeler's Hill has our thanks for $1.50 to renew her subscription.

Preparations for the great pageant to be held in Columbia, S. C., on Labor Day by the colored citizens are still in progress.

Reports from the various local committees and people from the neighboring towns are to the effect that this affair certainly will be the greatest that has been pulled off in this part of the country by our people.

At our first meeting to report progress it was indeed encouraging to note the interest and enthusiasm displayed by the various committees.

Representatives from Orangeburg and St. Matthews were present and pledged loyal support.

Among the unusual attractions which will feature this occasion will be the building of the "Tower of Light."

The symposium with its many able speakers promises also to be well worth the time and attention of the lovers of knowledge.

Homes On Easy Terms

Owing to the congested conditions and the high cost of rent, we the undersigned have organized a Corporation known as the Industrial Building and Loan Association with an authorized capital stock of three hundred thousand ($300,000.00) dollars, divided into series, with a par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per share payable in installments at 25c. per share weekly.

Why should you longer pay rent, when you can buy your home by joining this Association?

Get your application in on time.

First Series Opens Saturday, September 3rd.

Campaign is now on for five hundred members in the first series.
